...

CORAM: D.K.DESHMUKH &
J.H.BHATIA, JJ.
DATED: 19TH JULY, 2007

P.C.:

1. This Notice of Motion is taken out by the Appellant for condonation of delay.

2. Assuming that there is satisfactory explanation given for the delay, We heard the learned Counsel for the Appellant on merits.

3. We find that the Appellant was the employee of the Bank. There were charges of fraud and dishonesty framed against the Appellant. The Enquiry Officer held the charge to be proved. The findings were confirmed by the Labour Court. The learned single Judge has declined to interfere with the orders passed by the authorities below, after considering all the submissions made before him on behalf of the Appellant.

4. After having heard the learned Counsel for the Appellant and after having gone through the record, we see no reason to interfere with the detailed order made by the learned single Judge. Motion and Appeal are, therefore, disposed of.
